

Voxim Co., Ltd.

Office seating, public seating, executive chairs, mesh chairs, task chairs

Ever since its establishment in 1989, Voxim Co., Ltd. has been dedicated to developing high-quality, ergonomic office seating and chairs. The firm turns out all of its products using in-house integrated production, including R&D, mold development, and assembly, in order to fully meet the needs of its customers and provide specialized products and services.

Voxim's product line encompasses office seating (leather and fabric), public seating, beam chairs, executive chairs, mesh chairs, Neuvo chairs, and task chairs, among other items. All of the products are Ansi/Bifma certified to ensure safety.

The firm is known for its excellent design and has become a trend leader, winning and being nominated for numerous design awards over the past 20 years. Its Neuvo chair won the Gold Pin Design Award 2011, thanks to the dedicated work of its R&D team. With an appealing and integrated appearance, the chair uses mesh fabrics to ensure comfort and is eco-friendly, with 97% of its materials being recyclable.

Voxim is vigorously developing international markets and ships its products to the Americas, Southeast Asia, Australia, and New Zealand, where it has built up long-term customer relationships. In addition to finished products the company also offers parts, and welcomes inquiries about joint development.
