

All-Logic Int'l Co., Ltd.

Manufacturer of personal protective eyewear - All your needs for safety eyewear; LOGICally your best choice for OEM/ODM

Protective goggles/spectacles, safety goggles, safety eyewear, safety glasses, industrial eyewear, industrial spectacles, etc.

Founded in 1992, All-Logic Int'l Co., Ltd. set the goal of integrating manufacturing with sales and service to become the principal specialist safety eyewear manufacturer in Taiwan. The firm is ISO 9001-, ISO 18001-, ISO 14001-, AS (Australia)-, and CSA (Canada)-approved.

All-Logic currently exports about 50 million safety eyewear products per year, all of them designed in-house and most patented in Taiwan and other countries. The firm's products not only comply with major international safety standards such as ANSI Z87.1, CE EN166, and AS/NZS 1337, but can also meet other national standards in such countries as Brazil, Japan, and Russia. Some meet the CSA Z94.3 standard.

The eyewear maker says that its all-in-one organizational structure combines R&D, manufacturing, quality assurance, and sales to achieve the best possible performance in terms of product quality, cost control, and working efficiency. It insists that it will continue along this path with the aim of becoming the market leader in all-in-one OEM/ODM manufacturing by outperforming all other competitors in the market.

All-Logic claims the following capabilities:

a) R&D and Mold Development Department: from design concept, 3D graphic design to mold development, all is done in-house.

b) Manufacturing Department: a consistent production process from lens/frame injection; lens coating, lens cutting, frame painting, and assembly to packaging.

c) QA Department: a laboratory is equipped with well-trained & experienced inspectors and a full set of testing equipment imported from the U.S. and Europe; implementation of a comprehensive inspection and testing system for both in-process and final-batch inspection; and each shipment must be approved by the QA department before it can be dispatched.

d) Sales and Marketing Department: all products promoted and sold through the company's sales representatives for efficient control of product distribution in the market to optimize customers' benefits.
