Caulking guns

Established in 2000, Siang Syuan Fu Enterprise Co., Ltd. is a world-caliber manufacturer of caulking guns.

Initially making staple guns and punching parts, the supplier decided to venture into making caulking guns a decade ago. Tapping its cumulated manufacturing technologies to consistently develop caulking guns, the company has successfully gained solid ground in the line; while this maker's R&D capacity is underlined by its many patents for structural innovations in Taiwan, the U.S., Japan, European Union and China.

Boasting integrated production backed by high-performance equipment at its 3,600-square-meter factory, this maker can handle shop drawings and designing, prototyping, molding to manufacturing and pre-delivery quality inspecting in house; while being ISO9001:2008 GS certified attests to its production efficiency and by-the-book quality control.
